

GREG ROCHEFORT

Greg was introduced to the sport of Figure Skating at a young age by his mother Marion Rochefort, founder of the East Ferris Skating Club. Greg remained true and devoted to the sport of Figure Skating throughout his entire life. His artistic and creative choreographed programs rewarded him with many championship titles. After retiring from the competitive circuit of Figure Skating, Greg joined Disney on Ice and travelled extensively around the world with the Pinocchio Tour skating as the main character Pinocchio. The sport molded him into a respectful and sought after mentor to skating coaches in Canada, the USA and around the world. Greg's dedication and enthusiasm as a Technical Director with Skate Canada had a positive impact helping countless skaters achieve their dreams. This high-level position is certainly a testimony to his professionalism in the sport. At the international level he was well respected in the Skating World.

Greg left us in 2017 with a saying that he truly believed that

“EVERYONE DESERVES A CHANCE IN LIFE”
