Definitions

Advisory Committee means a committee established to provide advice to Council as mandated in the Terms of Reference. Advisory Committees will provide advice to Council through committee recommendations/resolutions and/or staff reports. Citizen appointments can be made by Council as required under the Terms of Reference.

Statutory Committee means a committee established by by-law and/or pursuant to Provincial legislation. They shall function according to requirements of the by-law and/or Provincial legislation as well as the Terms of Reference. Citizen appointments can be made by Council as required under the Terms of Reference.

Ad Hoc committee means a committee established by resolution of Council to carry out a specific function as mandated in the Terms of Reference. Many have cross functionality with other committees and/or municipal departments. They can be created quickly to mobilize a group and address a particular project or task. Ad hoc committees have a specific end date that coincides with the completion of their mandate. Citizen appointments can be made by Council as required under the Terms of Reference.

Local Agency means a local agency having Council representation on its Board of Directors/Management appointed by Council or having a representative on its Board endorsed by Council resolution. Many municipal services are administered through separate Local Agencies. The agencies are external organizations and generally have their own terms of reference agreed to by all parties.

Local Board means a local board having Council representation on its Board appointed by Council. These boards are established by by-law and pursuant to Provincial Legislation. Few municipal services are administered through separate Local Boards.

Purpose of Policy

The Municipality of East Ferris has several boards and committees to ensure that there is appropriate consultation to assist Council in making informed decisions. Most committees (Advisory Committees and Ad Hoc Committees) are established to act in advisory role to Council although some are statutory in nature (Statutory Committees) and are established in accordance with legislation. Local Boards and Boards of Directors/Management of Local Agencies are established and governed by Provincial legislation. The purpose of this policy is to support the appointments to and the terms of reference for boards and committees that are established by Council or mandated by the Province.

Citizen Appointments to Boards and Committees

The Municipality of East Ferris acknowledges the value of boards and committees and the advice they provide to Council. Numerous boards and committees require citizen representation. At the beginning of each term of Council, the newly elected Council will advertise for vacant positions on boards and committees and appoint citizens as required. Applicants must submit an application to highlight their experiences and qualifications to support their appointment. Members will be selected on the basis of their demonstrated interest, academic qualifications, availability, professional experience, community involvement and general knowledge of the Municipality.

All applications received by the established deadline will be forwarded to Council for review. Council will decide on which candidates are appointed and will appoint members by resolution. Appointments will be made as soon as reasonably possible at the beginning of a Council term. The Municipal Clerk will notify all applicants, in writing, of Council's decision and retain all applications on file for the duration of the term of Council.

The term for board and committee members shall be the same as the term of Council. Citizen appointed members of boards and committees who are members at the end of the 2014-2018 term of Council are permitted to remain on the board or committee for the next term of Council, should they so choose, as per past practice. This practice ensured that boards and committees have sufficient continuity and experience. For the 2022-2026 term of Council, the appointment process will change whereas board and committee members who would like to return for another term will need to re-apply and be re-appointed by Council.

Should a member resign or otherwise cease to be a member of the board or committee, Council may appoint another qualified person to complete the remainder of the term. Priority will be given to any applications on file.

Members of boards and committees must be a resident of East Ferris. Boards or committees may provide Council with a recommendation regarding potential members for consideration purposes only. Council makes the final decision on board and committee appointments unless there is legislation that governs the appointment process.
