

TAYLOR MILNE

ATHLETE | ATHLÈTE

As a young athlete, Taylor could be seen running long distances along Corbeil roads. His parents Debbie and Terry Milne explain that Taylor was born with a natural talent for running, but it took a lot of dedication and many hours of training to achieve his goal...and achieve he did! Taylor Milne represented Canada in the Olympic Games in Beijing in 2008 where he competed in the 1500m and then Rio de Janeiro in 2016 where he competed in the 3000m steeplechase. He also represented Canada at a pair of Commonwealth Games and the IAAF World Cross Country Championships and won eight medals at Canadian track and Field Championships. While attending High Point University in North Carolina he set several university records. In high school in North Bay, he won 5 NDA cross country championships and nine 1500- and 3000-meter titles. He captured six NOSSA golds and four silvers in the same disciplines and added OFSAA silver in the 1998 cross country and bronze in the 1500 in 2000.
